

KNOW YOUR DISTRICT CHAIRMAN
MRS. T. CHIRANJEEVI

Chiranjeevi was born and brought up in the coastal city of Kakinada in Andhra Pradesh. She hails from a highly educated landlord family where each one of them has risen to prominent roles in society. Her father, late Sri. Koka Gangadhar Rao was a retired Deputy Tahsildar and Landlord of Kakinada. Her mother, K.N. Mani, an affectionate, benevolent housewife has taken her duties beyond her household and sponsored numerous needy girls' marriages.

She has completed her Double Post-graduation, MA, and M.Phil from Andhra University. She has done her research on the Former chief minister of Andhra Pradesh, Dr. N. Chandhra Babu Naidu's development administration, and also worked as a junior college lecturer before marriage. She is married to a prestigious family of Landlords—the Tayi family. Her husband, Mr. T. Susant is an advocate in Berhampur, her father-in-law, late Er. T.R. K. Rao was the principal of an Engineering college and her mother-in-law, late Dr. Ranga Mani was a renowned Gynecologist of Berhampur. She and her husband are blessed with one lovely daughter named Naimisha, who is studying B.A. and B. L in National Law University.

Being true to her name 'Chiranjeevi' - the combination of 'chiram' (meaning 'long') and 'jeevi' (meaning 'lived'), her actions will continue to live longer than her life.

Hence, she joined the Inner Wheel Club of Berhampur as a Charter Vice president in 2008. She is a perfect combination of leadership skills and compassion that has not only enabled her to help others but take the lead towards the noble cause. She has served all posts at the club level with commitment and zeal and has always been recognized and acknowledged for her service. As a club ISO, she participated in many multiple District Rallies and ISO meets and won many awards there too, such as the ISO Queen Award, the Best ISO flag Award, the Best Performance Award, Naarisingar Award, Most talented ISO award, Beautiful beet walk award, etc. She has been the chairman for Go Green District Rally and co-chairman for branding of Inner wheel Multi-District Rally. She entered the District as District ISO in 2016. During her tenure as a District ISO, she hosted Multi-District-Rally-cum-ISO meet and conducted the Mega Inner Wheel Tambola. Her achievements and success owe a great deal to her creativity as well— she seeks to bring a unique and interesting approach to her work. She has once conducted an Arabian night's themed function. As a District Editor, she compiled and uniquely released the District souvenirs with the "Baahubali " theme and once released Chairman's newsletter in "Robo Style". As a District ESO along with chairman she has formed 11 New clubs in District 326. She is a Life Member of Overseas Velama Association of USA. She is a Life Member of the All India Velama Association and Andhra Mahila Sanjam. Her list of achievements further continued after she was honoured with the Young achiever award "The Kamal Patra award" from Indian Jaycees. She also served as an Advisory council member of the LIC policy holder's association of Ganjam District. She has attended and participated in many national and international level seminars and conferences. She has also attended the International Rotary Convention in Bangkok, 2 International Inner Wheel Conventions, and 2 Triennial conferences as a voting delegate. She is the District Coordinator for the 16th International Inner Wheel Conventions in Denmark. She has been keen to share our culture with her International Inner wheel Sisters at the 16th IIW convention in Denmark. As a District vice chairman she motivated many members to attend triennial conference at Varanasi.

She is inspired by Mother Teresa and entered into social service. She adopted a village in Andhra Pradesh and a school in Odisha also. She has also contributed to many awareness programs and led rallies on Women's problems. She has also contributed to old age homes, helped deprived girls' marriages, sponsored heart surgeries for underprivileged patients, and supported the development of village schools. She has advocated and conducted a Go Green Rally, spread awareness regarding the use of hand wash and masks during the pandemic.

She breeds her creativity during her leisure time when she is into dancing, anchoring, exploring our culture, and interior decoration. She has played many dramas and skits with worthy messages and has also won many awards for her performance. She is a very friendly and fun-loving person. she believes in serving humanity to serve God. Her kindness, accompanied by her perseverance and discipline has made her who is today.

Not only is her blood group is B +, the iconic lady Chiranjeevi remains true to her conviction in 'being Positive'. She believes that "when your vision is positive everything is positive and possible ".
